WELCOME TO PORTLAND PRESS PUBLISHING

As a publisher wholly owned by the Biochemical Society, Portland Press Publishing is embedded in the global scientific community and dedicated to promoting and sharing research for the advancement of science.

PORTLAND PRESS IMPLEMENTING RIGHTS LINK FOR OPEN ACCESS PAYMENTS

We are delighted to announce that we have now implemented RightsLink as our new Open Access (OA) payment system for all of our journals. At Portland Press we are fully committed to the open science agenda and to serving the needs of our authors, readers, librarians and Society members. The Copyright Clearance Center's RightsLink platform streamlines author fee transactions for Article Publishing Charges (APCs), supporting our mission as a Society-owned publisher, to place the requirements of our community at the heart of everything we do.
